"I Could Not Acquit Mrs. Bradley Without Shame, Nor Convict Her Without a Feeling Of Guilt," Says Nixola Greeley-Smith of Woman to Be Tried for Her Life

Senator Brown's Letters Breathe Passionate Love, While His Will Discloses Only Hatred for Woman Who Slew Him.

MAY DISCLOSE WHY. TRIAL

Known Facis Seem to Establish Brutal Duplicity to a Wronged Woman, Which May Influence Jury in Her Favor.

By Nixola Greeley-Smith.

Raleigh in Washington.

Mrs. Bradley killed Brown, with matize her children. Moreover, she had learned that he was about to become the husband of another woman, Mrs. Annie C. Adams, mother any part of my estate.

His Letters.

ence, I direct my executor to contest any claim of any kind she may present, and I direct that she receive nothing from my

These were probably the last words to whom he had once addressed such burning letters as the following:

indeed all that I care for-you, and bitter, but you are my own sweet wife, the mother of my And again:

"My Darling Wife-The troubles of life weigh heavily upon me to-night. It is for you against as best we can and stand together, loving, loving, loving and loving to a common end. I have no changed to you in thought or lly on to the consummation of our union, and love your forevershow my fidelity until no one else doubts."

Dying, He Would Not Accuse Her.

So much for Brown's letters, of which many will be introduced at the trial. As a matter of fact every one doubted Brown's fidelity before Mrs. Bradley, who did not learn of his intention to marry another woman until the day she brilliant political career in Utah, found time to marry two wives. The first his affair with Mrs. Bradley, caused the guilty in order to establish that Brown was the father of her two children.

"Brentually Brown and his wife were reconciled, But, when Mrs. Brown died Mrs. Bradley redoubled her offorts to persuade Brown to legitimatize her children, It was for this purpose at the Hotel Raleign

We had it out, and this is the remilt," was all she would say when she in the Adirondacks. was arrested for the shooting. Her victim lingured for five days, CHARGED WITH MURDER refusing to make any charge against

It is a strange case and one whereit the opinion of those who consider it must waver between sympathy for

On Dec. 8, 1906, Anna Madison Bradley, a fragile woman past her first youth, shot and killed Arthur Brown, formerly United States Senator from Utah, at the Hotel

Next Wednesday she will be placed on trial for her life for the crime committed eleven months ago, and a jury of Washington men will have to determine the truth or falsity of her plea of temporary whom she had lived for many years and who, she says, was the refused to marry her and so legitiof Maude Adams and herself an actress for many years.

Arthur and Mark, who prattle of Brow drams by the crude playwright's hand journment upon convening at 10 o'clock mony shall precedure are such deep-dyed villains as Arthur until Wednesday morning at the same before a priest or Brown, voiceless and forever defencea niece of Senator Don Cameron, of who says that she loved Brown madly ponement. The motion was seconded by for eight years, is said to be a woman Mr. Wells, of counsel for Mrs. Bradley of unusual talent. And the fact that and was readily granted by the Court. the mother of Maude Adams, after Mrs Bradley came into the courtroom knowing him for twenty years, was soon after the entrance of Judge Statwilling to marry him, scarcely permits ford, who will preside over her trial, the theory of unmitigated orueity and and was unaccompanied except by a vileness to be accepted.

There must be an explanation of the There must be an explanation of the discrepancy somewhere, and the Bradley Jury, still to be chosen, will have to since the Bonine trial has so much interest been manifested in any case before the District courts.

If I were a juryman sympathy would oner, who has suffered so much, and restore her to the children who are at once the cause and the consolation of the tragedy. the tragedy.

But reason, with its cold, clear voice

"Do you believe in this unwritten law that writes (teelf in blood?"

And I would either have to acquit Mrs. Bradley or any other destroyer of tuman life-and be forever ashamed of it, or convict her and feel myself for doing it perhaps a greater criminal

AT THE WINTER RESORTS.

New York Central Road's New Pam phiet Describes Ideal Spots.

The News York Central Railroad has just issued its latest edition of "Amerithe United States and Mexico and wimi in musical circles. you will find when you get there. Also the pamphlet gives a key to the Orient, to Central America and the West In-she followed him to Washington and erable space is devoted to the sunny took a room within a few doors of his South and California but Canada is the woman, who seems to have been serviced on the Connecticut boundary greatly wronged, and the calmer judg-line, was arrested early to-day charged ment, which suggests that for the dif-ference between the phasionate love letters Brown addressed to her and the serielly discounting clause of his will the bouse late last night.

Grace Howard, a boarder, and Daniel tilley, of Plainfield, a visitor, have been father of her two little boys, aged seven and three, because he had ALONE IN COURT, TO OFFICIATE AT READY FOR THIAL COUNT'S WEDDING DR. AKED CAN'T > Hears Her Case Postponed Because of Death.

The announcement of Judge Mo-Pennsylvania. Mrs. Bradley, herself, who says that she loved Brown made:

Attorney Baker, who moved the post-Jury May Solve the trance was so quiet that it was and potioed. She was dressed in black and noticed. She was dressed in black and took a seat on the left of her counsel.

vorce Sonata.

Mrs. Nelly Beatty will apply to Justice O'Gorman in Special Term of the ceremony where the bride or bride Supreme Court this morning for alfmony for the support of herself and Archbishop Farley succeeded to the her son, Sherman Beatty, pending the see he has persistently declined to act. trial of a suit she has instituted against no matter how prominent the contract-William F. Bentty, who is well known ing persons were.

Robinson, of No. 39 Nassau street, were Farley does, will surprise a great many married on Aug. 19, 1899, at Blooming-, persons. A civil marriage and then

Slayer of ex-Senator Brown Farley Has Never Solemnized Mixed Marriage and Will erence to Miss Vanderbitt's religion, and that effect were issued to-day, end to yell, but had presence of mind old people, delicate children, finally that Archbishop Farley would Dr. Aked was to meet a number of shough to bang the door shut and lock perform the overemony of his Church. prominent New Yorkers and the reception of the corresponding to bang the door shut and lock prominent New Yorkers and the reception.

authority of the Archbishop:
"Archbishop Farley will not perform the marriage ceremony in any case in which one of the contracting parties is of mixed marriages. He has never performed a ceremony of marriage except when the man and woman have been both Catholies

"No bishop or priest in this diocese will perform a marriage ceremony when Mrs. Beatty Wants a Long both. No ceremony of the Church.

Green Note in Her Di-marry a couple of which either the man or the woman is a non-Catholic, out not, as is well understood, within the walls of a church." The late Archibishop Corrigan or many occasions performed the marriage Design Filed for Colonial groom was not a Catholic, but since Drawing the line even against a civil The couple, according to Mrs. Beatty's contract of marriage preceding the complaint, drawn by Lawyer George Roman Catholic service, as Archbishop

STAND STRAIN in Long Island City. OF RECEPTION

Slight Operation Has Forced Him to Be Careful, But He Is Not Seriously III.

ports that he is to perform the marriage honor of the Rev. Dr. Aked, of the break in her door or rob her ceremony of the Hungarian nobleman Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, have band's shop. She decided to go into and the New Fork helress. These re-ports have had it that there would first caused an indefinite postponement of the street and await his return. be a civil contract, then a ceremony in the function because of the ciergramon's the Protestant Episcopal Church in defuncertain condition of health. Cards to under the stairs. She was too frightto restore health for

Prominent Catholics have been astontion was intended as a means of more omit one healthy scream before she fell ished by these reports, knowing how generally and personally introducing in a faint.

Several of her neighbors, running up cese and rector of St. Patrick's Cathe- physicians were in attendance upon of them immediately surmised dral, said yesterday, speaking with the him in his apartments at No. 2 West

BUILDING PLANNED

Structure of Six Stories, Elaborately Fitted Within.

tendent Murphy plans for the new home idiots. of the club at No. 119 West Fifty-seventh street. It is to be a six-very and basement edifice, of Colonial design, for many years," writes a Ky, man, dies.

There are many fine maps in the new folder, showing the course of, various relitoreds and steamenthy lines. Consideration of the course of the course

BLACK HAND SCARE STARTED BY HUNGRY LAD

Woman Who Didn't See Intruder Causes Excitement

strongly the Archbishop opposes "mixed the olergyman.

marriages" or unions of Catholics and non-Catholics.

Mgr. Lavelle, Vicar-General of the diohas tried his strength. Last week four of her husband. Strangely enough, all sufficiently to enable him to preach twice from the pulpit of his church yesterday.

The properties of the process of the proc blocked the way as the wayons halted the evolutionen was intended.

A dozen husky shoulders smashed up against the thin wood partition, it quickly gave way. With clubs in hand the cops courageously jumped into the hallway.

"Give yerself up!" yelled a big, red faced officer in the lead.

Then a little figure of a boy with a half empty bottle of milk in, his hand crawled from under the stairway. He was a shabby urchin, and thoroughly frightened. frightened:
"I was so hungry, Mr. Policeman, I had to drink it."
Willie Smith, fourteen years old, living two doors away from the Fortunes.

> FEBL ... STUPID" Brain Trumbled-by Coffee.

Donn Barber, architect for the Lotos drinking coffee year after year have Club, has filed with Building Superin- speils when they feel like thick

MRS. AUGUSTIN DALY, MANAGER'S WIDOW, DEAD.

gustin Daly, the theatrical manager and playwright, died at the Osborne, No. 206 West Fifty-seventh street, yesn St. Patrick's Cathedral at 10 A. M. Mrs. Daly was with her one-fifth of his estate to Ada Rehan, one of the actresses who had helped him to fame and fortune, so his will declared. Mr. Daly's collections of stage costumes, antiques and books when sold brought large prices. His books atone some at action for sie-the books atone some at the city was the meeting place of actors, artists and literary folk in Mr. Daly's lifetime. Mrs. Daly was always a charming hostess and presided with gance at the Sunday hight dinners, which were events in the dramatic world, decade preparation without oil. Better than old-fashioned Just as she got to the bottom of the cod liver oil and emulsions after sickness, colds, coughs, Several of her neighbors, running up bronchitis and all throat and

CARTA THE HUY GO-CARTA FOLDERS
CARTA TAREAU

ADENGLISH AT LOW

PRICES AT RETAIL

REPAREMENT

PRICES AT RETAIL

"TheBlue Review." 15 cents per copy.
Annual Subscription, $1.50.

The Blue Review Publishing Company,

WORLDWANTS WORKWONDERS

43 Wall Street.

WATERS

An artistic plano of the highest grade, celebrated for fine tone and great durability, one of our leading and most popular. styles, only $10 down and $7 monthly until paid. Also Style 85-Chester Piano 71/3 octave, 3-stringed, overstrung bass, full iron frame, ivory keys, fine tone and handsome case. Warranted six years, on payments of only $5 Per Month without interest. Stool, tuning

Send postal for catalogue with reduced prices and terms on the Waters 3-Year System giving you three years' time on a piano without interest. Horace Waters & Co.

134 Fifth Ave., nr. 18th St 127 West 42d St., nr. Broadway Harlem Branch (Open Evenings) 254 West 125th St., nr. 8th Ave

Park & Tilford

PURE, CLEAN

Although the total consumption of Tea has fallen off very largely in the United States during the last five years, the direct importation of Tea by Park & Tilford has increased—a fact which speaks its own word for the quality of their famous Teas imported from China, Japan, Ceylon and India. Park & Tilford's prices are the very lowest for Teas of equal quality.

-28c. to $1.50 lb. Deliveries made out of town

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

FOR THAT

WE OFFER MANY OTHER PRIZES. CASH, TRIPS TO EUROPE, JAPAN, Etc.,

AND HANDSOME GIFTS.

ARE YOU TRYING

1122 Broadway, N. Y. Please mention World